NO. 4

JAPANESE DEFEAT RUSSIAN FORCE

Battle on the Yalu River, Resulting in a Russian Defeat. The Russians Lost 2,500 Men.

HUGE LAND BATTLE INEVITABLE WITHIN A FEW DAYS.

Grave Complications Feared Between European Nations. Russia Gives England a Strong Reminder that She is Ready for War. United States Warships are Active. The Russian Baltic Squadron will Stay at Home.

Russians Defeat Japs.

St. Petersburg, February 20.—A despatch from Port Arthur to-day says, "The first land encounter occurred yesterday. The Cossacks attacked some Japanese prisoners on whom they found maps and papers."

Uncle Sam Hated in Russia.

St. Petersburg, February 19.—Anti-American feeling here is growing more intense daily and authorities took special precautions during last week's public demonstrations to safeguard the embassy from insult or attack. The animus against England is far less bitter than against the United States.

Russian Ambassador to England Summoned Home.

London, February 20.—Benckendorff, Russian Ambassador to England, has been suddenly summoned to St. Petersburg. It is supposed the Russian government desires his views as to the possibilities of Great Britain joining Russia in certain eventualities.

Japs are Wary.

London, February 20.—The Japanese war council in Tokio evidently considers the report of falling back of the Russian army to the junction of the Vladivostok and the Port Arthur branches of the Trans-Siberian railway and the Amur River as a military trap in a log-grade plan.

Russian Appointments.

St. Petersburg, February 19.—War Minister Kuropatkin who is going to the far east will be appointed Commander-in-chief of the army during the operations there and Vice-Admiral Makaroff who is now on his way east on a train which is expected to reach Port Arthur in ten days breaking all previous records will be made Chief of the navy.

Rear Admiral Jessen has been appointed to succeed Rear Admiral Ewald Von Steckeberg Commanding the Vladivostok squadron. Rear Admiral Jessen has the reputation of being a bold sailor. He will leave St. Petersburg immediately. There is no intimation that Viceroy Alexieff will not retain Viceroyalty in the far East. It is possible that the active direction of field movements may pass out of his hands.

Grand Duke Michael, the Czars eldest brother, and heir presumptive to the throne and several hundred officers assembled at the Nicholas railroad station this evening to bid farewell to a number of comrades who left for the front.

Russia Strengthening Her Forces.

St. Petersburg, February 20.—According to the terms of an Imperial order just issued political suspects under police surveillance are permitted to enter the army in the field as privates after which the Minister of the Interior and the Minister of Justice can order the withdrawal of police supervision over such persons. Another decree appoints a special commission under the presidency of the hereditary Grand Duke Michael Alexander Victor, brother of the Czar, to arrange for the most speedy construction of submarine boat cruisers and other vessels to meet the expense of which a public subscription has been started by the press.

Russians Defeated on Land.

St. Petersburg, February 21.—It is reported that the Russian advance guard on the Yalu has been driven back with a loss of over 2,000 men. The Emperor has ordered an inquiry into the Port Arthur affairs and many dismissals and degradations will result. Alexieff is looked upon as a disappointment.

London, February 21.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Telegraph says that despite official assurances that everything is quiet an outpost engagement has occurred on the Yalu River resulting in the Russian advance guard being driven back. He says the losses are estimated at 2,500. It is not clear whether the figures mean those who fell on the Yalu or the entire Russian losses since the commencement of war. There have been for days rumors of Russian mishaps on land.

Land Battle Inevitable.

New York, February 21.—The World's Chee Foo cable says, "The Russian troops are hurrying toward the Yalu River from Lian Yang south of Mukden the nearest point on the railroad to the river. Toward the Yalu tens of thousands of Japanese troops also are proceeding by forced marches from various points in Korea. Several engagements have occurred between scouts and outposts. The Japs confidently say they will take Port Arthur with their fleet within two months although the Russian military strategists say they can hold it for nine or ten months."

Five thousand Russian troops were in Port Arthur when the Japanese fleet first attacked it. The soldiers as well as the fleet were caught napping.

Grave Complications Feared.

St. Petersburg, February 22.—The war of the moment is an extremely serious one with regard to the prospects of international complications. Trans-Caucasian troops are being mobilized and ordered to occupy the frontiers of Turkistan and Persia, this being a strong reminder to England that Russia is ready for war over these two frontiers. A council of war has been held here where the possibilities of international complications are very freely discussed with the result that it was decided if not inevitable, they are so probable that Russia must be fully prepared to meet them. This forms a distinct note in the ideas of the present moment.

United States Warships Active.

Chee Foo, February 22.—The United States warships Wilmington and New Orleans which arrived here have suddenly been recalled to the south. It is reported that an incident occurred at Shang Hai, probably connected with the present war. The Annapolis which is expected to-morrow has been recalled to Shang Hai.

Russian Baltic Squadron Will Stay at Home.

New York, February 22.—The American Kiel cables say, "Well formed naval officials declare the reason for the turning back of the Russian squadron that was destined for the Orient from Jibuti to the Baltic Sea was the realization of the great superiority of the Japanese fleet. The Russian Baltic squadron will remain in the Baltic Sea."

PARADIS CROSSING

The lumbering business is in full swing in this locality. Along the north side of the river for a distance of three miles gangs of men are busy cutting down timber. There are two saw mills, one belonging to Mr. S. Richardson, the other to Mr. Ball, the latter being situated on the river at the crossing.

This promises to be a very busy locality in the near future. The great mill of Paradis and Suburban stands on the high bank, overlooking the river. The blacksmith's forge is there also in operation, for repairs are often needed.

Further up the road is the store, also the post office, both very acceptable adjuncts to such a well settled neighborhood and very worthily conducted by Mr. D. Desjardins and his eldest daughter.

The weather has been rough and changeable during the last fortnight. A good deal of snow has fallen, which has made the roads much better than they were for sleighing.

VEGREVILLE.

The weather was very cold for the last three weeks with about three inches of snow.

Every one in the village is glad to welcome back the smiling face of George Robison with his bride. Your correspondent wishes them both a long and happy life.

Dr. Rish and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a bright baby boy.

S. Tetrow, who was operated on a year ago for appendicitis, is on the sick list again.

Const. Moore has been sent back here again to act as the capacity of policeman.

Miss Emma Williams is also back from Edmonton where she has been for about three months.

Diphtheria has made its appearance in the family of Merton Cole but the doctor is taking great precaution to not let it spread any farther.

Feb. 10, 1904.

HOSPITAL CONCERT.

A very successful concert in aid of the Edmonton Public Hospital was held in the Clover Bar school house on Friday evening last. Although the night was stormy and cold there was a very good attendance, the large and comfortable school room being well filled. The audience and performers included a number from town. The programme was lengthy and included some excellent numbers; the whole under the direction of Mrs. Fowler, to whose exertions the entertainment was chiefly due. At the close of the concert the performers and visitors were entertained to tea at the hospitable residence of Mr. J. S. Dore. The takings of the entertainment amounted to $30. Frank Oliver, M. P., acted as chairman. The following is the programme rendered:

Chairman's address.
Organ solo, Mr. Hetherington.
Duet, "What are the wild waves saying," Mrs. Fowler and Mr. Stevens.
Recitation, "Would I were a boy again," Fred Daly.
Solo, "The Powder Monkey," Mr. Hetherington.
Solo with banjo accompaniment, Mr. Hencher, Encore.
Recitation, "Nobody's Child," Miss Anna Duguid.
Solo, "The Four Marys," Miss Potter.
Duet, "Oh! Yah, Don't dot was fine," Mrs. Fowler and Mr. Stevens; encore, "Come under my plaidie."
Solo, "Wedding Bells," Mr. Moore.
Recitation, Mr. Gibson.
Song with banjo accompaniment, Mr. Hencher, encore.
Solo, "Wishes and Fishes," Miss Potter, Encore.
Recitation, "Address of Spartacus to the Gladiators," Mr. Stevens.
Solo, "Mama," Mr. Hetherington.
Indian club performance, Mr. Hencher.
Recitation, "The speaking hour," Mr. Gibson.

A farce in two acts entitled "Haris Von Smash," in which Mr. Stevens was the central figure, fairly brought down the house.
Between the acts Mr. Hetherington sang "Ehrin on the Rhine."
"Soldiers of the Queen" was the closing number of the programme and was rendered with great effect.
The good people of Clover Bar and the Public Hospital as well as to be congratulated on the success of the entertainment.

BEAVER LAKE EAST

The weather for some time has been cold and disagreeable. The local thermometers registered from 36 to 42 degrees below zero during the first snap; lately it hasn't been quite so low.

The subject of a manse has agitated the Presbyterians here for some time. A meeting on the 16th is to decide the matter definitely. The reports of the secretary-treasurer of the church and the secretary of the Ladies Aid Society read at the annual meeting, showed that both are in a flourishing condition.

Our school is without a teacher yet. The trustees have advertised again. We hope success will crown their efforts this time.
Feb. 9, 1904.

WHITE WHALE LAKE

Snow! Snow! Beautiful snow! and plenty of it. Knee deep everywhere. Nothing like it for the past four years.
Lumbering operations are very brisk. Lots of snow for hauling now, so the teams are being rushed into the bush.

It was a matter of deep sorrow to learn of the death in the Edmonton Public Hospital of the victim Emerson of the accident in the bush in which the man's skull was crushed in. His parents reside in Lowell, Ont., near Hamilton. He has a brother in Walter's camp.

There are one or two survey parties out west, one being a party to survey a timber limit on the Pembina.
It was recently stated in an Edmonton paper that a school tax of $16 each half year was imposed in this school district. It so happens that the tax rate was fixed at 10 cents per acre, so that for one who got a paid in 30 days, so that for one who got a move on, the year's tax was $14.40. And all the hooters among the settlers have already paid up or are making preparations to do so. There is no shadow of excuse for non-payment of taxes and other debts, for there is lots of work close by us at fair wages. Unfortunately we have a small proportion of growers who would rather not work and are slow in paying their taxes.

The hum of the threshing machines can be heard at last; but what a time to be threshing, with the thermometer at 5 to 25 degrees or more, and snow blocking up everything. Under the circumstances, we heartily wish success to the machine agent now canvassing the settlement to try and place a threshing bill for next year.

Our P. O. is averaging over 100 letters per week out-going and several registered ones. The income within 9 months from opening is nearly double what its most sanguine promoters estimated at the outset. More promising settlers are arriving. Rather a cold time to begin; but as they begin on a small scale, doubtless they will prosper. It is the ninth this time.

A curious pair went down from the camp last week, riding in the same rig, one to secure a warrant for the other for assault, and the other to lodge an information against himself and thus forestall the threatened action. We have not learned the result.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH

AT MOOSOMIN, ASSINIBOIA

Deceased Thought to have been killed by Suffocation. An Investigation has been ordered.

(Bulletin Special Despatch.)
Winnipeg, February 22.—Word was received here of the death at Moosomin which occurred on the evening of February 5, under suspicious circumstances. At 6 o'clock in the evening on that day Robert Kerr left Moosomin for their homes in a sleigh. The night was cold so they lay in the bottom of the sleigh to obtain protection from the wind. When they reached the farm of Wm. S. Mathers, 10 miles from Moosomin, they discovered Kerr was dead. It was claimed that he was frozen to death. J. G. Kerr, brother of the deceased, who was in Winnipeg and who was not satisfied with the verdict that death was due to cold, as the coroner's inquest decided, and had the inquest reopened with the result that a verdict of death from suffocation was returned. His brother thinks it is strange they should have taken him two miles past his farm when they knew that he was not feeling well. Mr. Kerr has telegraphed the Northwest Mounted Police to thoroughly investigate the case as he suspects foul play and if his death was due to suffocation to find out how suffocation came about.

BAD FIRE IN PARIS.

SEVERAL LIVES LOST.

Celluloid Comb Factory in Paris, Ontario, Destroyed by Fire. Started from an Explosion of Gas.

(Bulletin Special Despatch.)
Paris, February 22.—Fourteen employees of the Celluloid Comb factory lost their lives in a fire which was started by an explosion of gas. About 20 other employees were injured. After the explosion, the entire structure was soon on fire. Simultaneously with the appearance of flames, a number of men and women employed on the upper stories who had been eating lunch, appeared at the windows and shrieked for assistance. Three men attempted to drop from the windows to the balcony beneath, but missed it and fell to the pavement below and were killed. The firemen rescued several persons.
